

Career destinations

BSc (Hons) Business Information Technology

Percentages of leavers in known destinations (2009)

Examples of employment obtained by leavers (2009)

Job title	Employer
Usability Lab Assistant	Southampton Solent University
Software designer	NHS
Software Engineer	Hannover-RE
Web developer	Apogee Corporation

Knowledge and skills

Graduates understand how IT can serve business and how computer users relate to the technology in order to use it effectively and efficiently. They have significant practical computing skills as well as developing good team-working and communication skills, including making presentations.

Professional accreditation

The course is accredited by the British Computer Society.

Career opportunities

Opportunities are available in many areas, including business analysis, consultancy on systems, user and network support, network management, software engineering, web development, education and training. Positions may be in large IT companies, consultancies, financial services, web-based business, retailing or the public sector.