

Career destinations

BA (Hons) Interior Design (Decoration)

Percentages of leavers in known destinations (2009)

Examples of employment obtained by leavers (2009)

Job title	Employer
Property developer	Self employed
Assistant Interior Designer	HH Interiors
Home Specialist	Next
Intern	Country Living Magazine
Sales consultant	The white company

Knowledge and skills

Graduates have strong creative skills together with an understanding of materials and of the historical development of interior design. They understand forecasting and trendsetting, are able to present their ideas and communicate effectively. They also have transferable skills in numeracy, managing their own work, team working and IT.

Career opportunities

Opportunities include interior design, magazine features, advising on historical interiors, show home styling, refurbishment and visual merchandising. The skills and knowledge acquired can also be utilised in larger environments such as hotels, shops, theatres, offices, exhibitions and galleries.