20/49 Welcome & Apologies

- i. Apologies: Mark Dixon - Resources Committee member.
- ii. The Committees were both quorate.
- iii. Phil Cotton, Chair of the Board, welcomed everyone to the Joint Meeting of Audit and Resources Committee members which had been convened to focus on the annual financial statement (AFS) and the external auditors' report. Audit Committee owned the responsibility for recommending the AFS to the Board of Governors, however Resources Committee annually reviewed and commented on these items.
- iv. Several standard items of business of the two Committees had been 'starred' and would be taken as read or approved as no objection had been indicated ahead of the meeting, with the exception of the People and Development Report which would be unstarred so that Andrea Thompson could provide an update on the people planning process.

20/50 Conflict of Interests - Harry Mears informed the Committee that KPMG had worked with Solent University on the Solent Future Ready project but he was not personally involved. No other conflicts of interest were declared.

20/51 Report on Pre-Meetings Confidential

- i. Phil Cotton reported that prior to the Joint Meeting, the members of Audit and Resources had met privately as a group and then privately with the internal and external auditors. There was nothing to report beyond matters already discussed between the executive and the auditors.

At this point, Phil Cotton relinquished the Chair of the Joint Meeting to James Rimmer, Audit Chair.
