CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS INFORMATION SHEET

Criminal Conviction

The University has a responsibility to provide a safe educational environment for its students and staff. For this reason all applicants seeking admission to the University's courses are required to declare any relevant criminal convictions that they may have so that appropriate checks can be made.

Relevant criminal offences include convictions, cautions, admonitions, reprimands, final warnings, bind over orders or similar involving one or more of the following: any kind of violence including (but not limited to) threatening behavior, offences concerning the intention to harm or offences which resulted in actual bodily harm. Offences listed in the Sex Offences Act 2003. The unlawful supply of controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking, offences involving firearms, offences involving arson, offences listed in the Terrorism Act 2006.

If your conviction involved an offence similar to those set out above, but was made by a court outside of Great Britain, and that conviction would be not be considered as spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, you should tick the box.

If you are applying for courses such as (but not limited to) teaching, medicine, dentistry, law, accountancy, actuarial, insolvency, healthcare, social work, veterinary medicine, veterinary science, pharmacy, osteopathy, chiropractic, optometry and professions or occupations involving work with children or vulnerable adults, including the elderly or sick people are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974). For these courses, you may need an 'enhanced disclosure document' from the Disclosure and Barring Service. You may find the information below useful.

Note 2

The University has a duty of care to provide a safe educational environment for its students and staff. For this reason all applicants seeking admission to the University's courses are required to declare any relevant criminal conviction(s) they may have so that appropriate checks can be made. Any information you provide will be treated as strictly confidential.

Note 3

This address is the one the University will use for future correspondence unless an alternative correspondence address is given.

Note 4

A correspondence address is required if you want post to be sent to any address other than your family home. If you are an International applicant you must enter your overseas address as 'Home Address', and enter under 'Address for Correspondence' the address where you may be contacted while in the UK.

Note 5

Country of permanent residence. This is the country in which you are normally permanently resident.

Note 6

If you were born outside the UK but now live in the UK, please give the date when you began living here permanently.

Note 7

If you have indicated an employer or corporate sponsor, an invoice will be sent direct to them at the address given. However, if you work for a department of your company and the invoice should go to the Head Office please give details in the space provided. Proof of corporate sponsorship/employer agreement or loan schedule must be produced prior to or at enrolment. If you are paying your own fees, payment may be made at The Income Team, Finance Service. Payment of fees may be made by cash, cheque (payable to Southampton Solent University), MasterCard/Visa credit card or bank transfer. You may also make an arrangement to pay your fees by instalments by agreement with The Income Team.

Note 8

Please provide details of the most recent educational institution you have attended. This may be a University, College or School. You should also provide the full address of the Institution and contact details.

Note 9

Please note that we need to see both original or certified copies of all relevant Diplomas/Certificates and all transcripts where applicable. Please list all qualifications (relevant to the course of study for which you are applying) and the last school/college/university you attended along with dates of attendance. Documents must be in English and certified as a true copy. From 6 April 2012 a new maximum five year time limit was introduced for non-EEA students studying on courses at degree level (undergraduate and masters). The limit will be 8 years if you are studying for a PhD. Check the Home Office website and University website for further information.

Note 10

Details of work experience may be relevant to course of study for which you are applying, including membership of any professional bodies.

Note 11

Your Personal Statement may include any other information which you consider to be relevant to your application and if you have been unsuccessful in a previous course please note why your previous course did not meet your goals.

RESIDENTIAL CATEGORY (COMPILED WITH THE HELP OF UKCISA)

Along with other information in your application this helps Southampton Solent University to establish your status for the payment of tuition fees. Although we cannot tell you which category to select, the brief explanations set out below should establish your provisional status. Southampton Solent University will make the final decision on your category and so all queries should be directed to us.

The categories are as follows:

1 UK Citizen or EU National:

You are a UK or EU national, or are the child or grandchild, or spouse or civil partner of a UK or EU national, and have lived in the European Economic Area (EEA), Switzerland or Overseas Territories (OT) for the past three years, but not just for full-time education. If you have been living in the EEA, Switzerland or OT for three years partly for full-time education, you also lived in the EEA, Switzerland or OT prior to that three year period.

2 EEA or Swiss National:

Either: You are an EEA or Swiss national working in the UK, or you are the child, spouse or civil partner of such a person or you are the parent or grandparent of an EEA national working in the UK. You have lived in the EEA or Switzerland or OT for the past three years, but not just for full-time education. If you have been living in the EEA, Switzerland or OT for three years partly for full time education, you also lived in the EEA, Switzerland or OT prior to that three year period. Or: You are the child of a Swiss National and have lived in the EEA or Switzerland or OT for the past three years, but not just for full-time education. If you have been living in the EEA or Switzerland or OT for three year partly for full time education, you also lived in the EEA, Switzerland or OT prior to that three year period.

3 Child of a Turkish worker:

You are the child of a Turkish national who has lawfully worked in the UK, and you have lived in the EEA, Switzerland or Turkey for the past three years.

4 Refugee:

You have been recognised as a refugee by the British government or you are the spouse, civil partner or child under 18 of such a person at the time of the asylum application.

5 Humanitarian Protection or similar:

You have been granted Exceptional Leave to Enter or Remain, Humanitarian Protection or Discretionary Leave or you are the spouse, civil partner or child under 18 or such a person at the time of the asylum application.

6 Settled in the UK:

You have Indefinite Leave to Enter or Remain in the UK or have the Right of Abode in the UK and have lived in the UK, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man (or more than one of these) for three years, but not just for full-time education. (However, this does not apply if you are exempt from immigration control, for example, as a diplomat, a member of visiting armed forces or an employee of an international organisation or the family or staff member of such a person: if this is your situation your residential category is Other).

9 Other:

If none of the above apply to you please contact the relevant faculty you are making an application to for further assistance.
