BA (HONS) MUSIC BUSINESS

Hello,

We are looking forward to meeting you during Southampton Solent University's Welcome Week, when there will be opportunities to meet your new coursemates, hear from our current students and chat with music industry professionals.

Our full timetable of events for the week can be found on the Music Business course page via Solent Online Learning, with the first event scheduled for 10:00am on Monday 21 September. There will be plenty of on-campus activities during the week.

If you would like to start preparing for the course, we recommend the following books:

- Music: The Business (9th Edition) by Ann Harrison (2025)
- All You Need to Know about the Music Business (11th Edition) by Donald Passman (2023)
- Music Management, Marketing and PR by Chris Anderton, James Hannam and Johnny Hopkins (2022)

To keep track of music industry news, we also recommend subscribing to the free daily newsletters from Complete Music Update and Music Business Worldwide.

If you have any further questions, please let me know. We look forward to meeting you soon.

Best wishes,

James Hannam

Course Leader
