THE FLEDGLING

This story begins with the turning of one fledgling. After being assumed dead due to a vampire bite gone wrong, Fledge begins her journey as an immortal being when she crawls from her own grave. In search of her lover, who turned her, she encounters a handful of different vampire beings.

DRACULA

Hopeless romantic at heart, Count Dracula is often found lurking in the shadows of his own house parties. Once a demon lord among vampires, he now sulks over his nemesis, Carmilla, buried himself in dirt and waits for a companion to tumble into one of his many vents.

CARMILLA

After word got out that Dracula wasn't as old and experienced as he led on, Carmilla took to the stage with her extra 26 years of experience. She's often willing to hand out advice to fledglings, at the cost of a bottle of her favourite blood-type (AB-).

THE VAMPIRE

Since Fledge, The Vampire flies to Dracula's party to dance away her sorrow when she believes she'd accidentally murdered her beloved with a vampire bite. Unbeknownst to her, Fledge is reborn as a vampire (as intended) and searches the city to reunite with The Vampire she wishes to spend immortality with.

LOUIS DE POINTE DU LAC

Louis always has time for a party. In any conversation he's in, he's likely to bring up the time he was interviewed by a human and refrained from sucking the life out of him. He's a friendly and sophisticated vampire who drinks his synthetic $1,000 out of a wine glass. Just don't ask him about the rats.

NOSFERATU

Nosferatu burnt all of his money a few years ago in rejection to the aristocratic life of a vampire who's been on the earth for just under 100 years. He decided he wanted a fresh start and currently works night shifts at his local patrol station and lives in the storage basement.
