Default Management Plan

Southampton Solent University has adopted the US Education Department's Default Management Plan.

Entrance Counselling

Entrance counselling is required before a Stafford or Graduate PLUS loan can be approved <https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>

Exit Counselling

Exit counselling should be completed via <https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/counselingInstructions.action?counselingType=exit>

Students must submit proof of completion of exit counselling to the University, when a student falls below 50% on campus, withdraws or graduates. Southampton Solent University asks students to complete exit counselling annually.

Private Education loan

Southampton Solent University does not endorse any private education loan provider located in the United States who offer loans for study at foreign schools. At the date of publication of this document only one private education provider issues loans to foreign schools, Sallie Mae. Southampton Solent will certify loans from Sallie Mae, but only when a certification request is received from Sallie Mae, and only when a student has submitted a Cost of Attendance calculation to the University which is considered to be an accurate record of the student's cost of attendance.

Preferred lender

Southampton Solent does not endorse, promote or recommend any preferred United States based private education loan provider. At the date of publication of this document only one private education provider issues loans to foreign schools, Sallie Mae; therefore any reference to Sallie Mae on Southampton Solent communications does not represent the existence of a preferred lender; merely that it is a lender. In the event that other companies decide to exploit the market they will be given equal visibility.

Code of conduct for educational loans

All Southampton Solent staff with a responsibility for US loans are prohibited from:

- Revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender
- Receiving gifts from a lender, a guarantor, or a loan services
- Contracting arrangement providing financial benefit from any lender or affiliate of a lender
- Directing borrowers to particular lenders, or refusing or delaying loan certifications
- Offers of funds for private loans
- Call centre or financial aid office staffing assistance
- Advisory board compensation

Southampton Solent university staff with a responsibility for US loans are informed annually of the code.
