

CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS INFORMATION SHEET

Criminal Conviction

The University has a responsibility to provide a safe educational environment for its students and staff. For this reason all applicants seeking admission to the University's courses are required to declare any relevant criminal convictions that they may have so that appropriate checks can be made.

Relevant criminal offences include convictions, cautions, admonitions, reprimands, final warnings, bind over orders or similar involving one or more of the following: any kind of violence including (but not limited to) threatening behaviour, offences concerning the intention to harm or offences which resulted in actual bodily harm. Offences listed in the Sex Offences Act 2003. The unlawful supply of controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking, offences involving firearms, offences involving arson, offences listed in the Terrorism Act 2006.

If your conviction involved an offence similar to those set out above, but was made by a court outside of Great Britain, and that conviction would be not be considered as spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, you should tick the box.

If you are applying for courses such as (but not limited to) teaching, medicine, dentistry, law, accountancy, actuarial, insolvency, healthcare, social work, veterinary medicine, veterinary science, pharmacy, osteopathy, chiropractic, optometry and professions or occupations involving work with children or vulnerable adults, including the elderly or sick people are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (1974). For these courses, you may need an 'enhanced disclosure document' from the Criminal Records Bureau. You may find the information below useful.

Applicants who answer YES will not be automatically excluded from the application process. However, the Student Advice Manager may want to consider the application further or ask for more information before making a decision.

If you are convicted of a relevant criminal offence after you have applied you must tell Southampton SOLENT University. Please contact the Student Advice Manager for further details.

RESIDENTIAL CATEGORY (COMPILED WITH THE HELP OF UKCISA)

Along with other information in your application this helps Southampton Solent University to establish your status for the payment of tuition fees. Although we cannot tell you which category to select, the brief explanations set out below should establish your provisional status. Southampton Solent University will make the final decision on your category and so all queries should be directed to us.

The categories are as follows:

1 UK Citizen or EU National:

You are a UK or EU national, or are the child or grandchild, or spouse or civil partner of a UK or EU national, and have lived in the European Economic Area (EEA), Switzerland or Overseas Territories (OT) for the past three years, but not just for full-time education. If you have been living in the EEA, Switzerland or OT for three years partly for full-time education, you also lived in the EEA, Switzerland or OT prior to that three year period.

2 EEA or Swiss National:

Either: You are an EEA or Swiss national working in the UK, or you are the child, spouse or civil partner of such a person or you are the parent or grandparent of an EEA national working in the UK. You have lived in the EEA or Switzerland or OT for the past three years, but not just for full-time education. If you have been living in the EEA, Switzerland or OT for three years partly for full time education, you also lived in the EEA, Switzerland or OT prior to that three year period. Or: You are the child of a Swiss National and have lived in the EEA or Switzerland or OT for the past three years, but not just for full-time education. If you have been living in the EEA or Switzerland or OT for three year partly for full time education, you also lived in the EEA, Switzerland or OT prior to that three year period.

3 Child of a Turkish worker:

You are the child of a Turkish national who has lawfully worked in the UK, and you have lived in the EEA, Switzerland or Turkey for the past three years.

4 Refugee:

You have been recognised as a refugee by the British government or you are the spouse, civil partner or child under 18 of such a person at the time of the asylum application.

5 Humanitarian Protection or similar:

You have been granted Exceptional Leave to Enter or Remain, Humanitarian Protection or Discretionary Leave or you are the spouse, civil partner or child under 18 or such a person at the time of the asylum application.

6 Settled in the UK:

You have Indefinite Leave to Enter or Remain in the UK or have the Right of Abode in the UK and have lived in the UK, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man (or more than one of these) for three years, but not just for full-time education. (However, this does not apply if you are exempt from immigration control, for example, as a diplomat, a member of visiting armed forces or an employee of an international organisation or the family or staff member of such a person: if this is your situation your residential category is Other).

9 Other:

If none of the above apply to you please contact the relevant faculty you are making an application to for further assistance.
