Film, TV and Media

2024 undergraduate courses

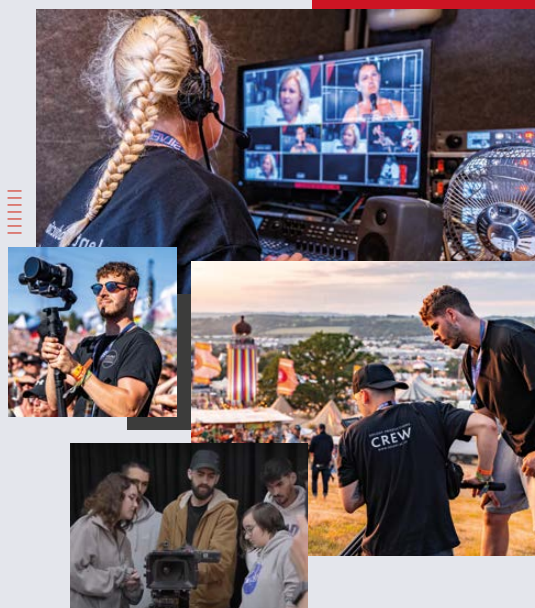

The creative media industries are huge and growing – home to everything from international corporations to in-house media teams to independent producers and content creators. From film to TV, sports commentary to viral videos, there's something for everyone.

Director? Cinematographer? Sound engineer? Journalist? Producer? Multi-skilled media professional? Or are you looking for a career in independent filmmaking, post-production, screenwriting or art direction? Our graduates get jobs like these because they have the right skills, experience, qualifications and opportunities.

Why Solent?

- Our TV production courses are ScreenSkills-accredited, and our sports journalism degree is accredited by the Broadcast Journalism Training Council (BJTC), meaning we offer real-world opportunities and professional experiences.
- Through our in-house creative agencies, Solent Productions and Solent Creatives, you can work with clients on indie film productions, live briefs and projects.
- Benefit from an extensive alumni network with graduates who've worked for organisations including Sky, the BBC, ESPN, Warner Bros, Disney, Ignition, Premier League Productions and on TV shows and blockbusters such as Strictly Come Dancing, Love Island, Fleabag, Game of Thrones, Avengers Endgame, Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker, 1917 and more.
- We are official university partner of Southampton Football Club, and Solent students have worked at Glastonbury music festival for over ten years, providing footage to broadcasters such as the BBC.
- Attend masterclasses with industry professionals and high-profile guest speakers and take part in trips to exhibitions, film festivals and events.

Training for the future of film and TV

Virtual production (VP) is the latest innovation in film and TV, made famous by Disney's hit Star Wars show The Mandalorian and since featured in blockbusters like The Batman. And our latest addition to the media facilities at Solent puts this cutting-edge technology straight into the hands of our students.

Other specialist facilities include:

- Specialist media production store giving you free access to high-end professional cameras and mics for photography, videography and audio recording
- Acoustics laboratory
- Audio dubbing suite
- Electronics lab
- Colour grading suite
- Editing and post-production suite
- Outside broadcast vehicle
- Three multi-camera TV green-screen studios
- Multi-track music recording studios
- Radio studios
- Multi-award-winning digital cinema run by students
- Three high-definition TV studios
- Film studio – a dedicated acoustically treated space for set building and filming
- Professional-style newsroom
- Dedicated on-location mini studio for live news bulletins
