

Timetable of Events - The Future of Football: Mapping Progress and Alternatives

Time	Sessions
10:00-10:15	Arrival and Registration (Solent University - The Spark)
10:15-10:30	Welcome Dr Mark Turner and Dr David Webber (TS515)
10:30-11:15	Keynote - Men Football Fans Attitudes in a 'New Age' of Women's Sport: Tackling Sexism and Misogyny (Dr Stacey Pope - Durham University) in TS515
11:15-11:30	Break and refreshments
11:30-12:45	Parallel Session A: Football, Politics and Governance (15 mins per paper + 5 mins Q&A) Room: TS515 Chair: Mark Turner From restricted team clashes to Russia's suspension in international football: Analysis of the new trends in the interconnection between politics and football (Mical Kobierecki and Anna Kobierecka - University of Lodz) Online Rewriting the future: Alternatives to 'the present' (and presence of) capitalist realism in elite European football (David Webber - Solent University) In-person Against the European Super League: Reading this critical juncture for English and European football (Mark Turner - Solent University) In-person A change in the balance of power: English football following the Fan-Led Review (Richard Irving, Birkbeck University) In-person Parallel Session B: Discrimination, Sustainability and Football Finance (15 mins per paper + 5 mins Q&A) Room: TS501 Chair: Stacey Pope At the end of the day, we haven't got a choice': Barriers to inclusion in English football fandom for disabled people (Connor Penfold - Ulster University) In-person Antisemitism in British Football: Examining Good Practice in Anti-Discrimination Educational Initiatives (Bonita Lunn - Oxford Brookes) Online

	How Green is my club? (Colm Hickey - Solent University) In-person The other ISL: Analysing the finances of the Indian Super League (football) and its franchisees (Sarthak Mondal - Sheffield Hallam University) In-person
12:45-13:45	Lunch
13:45-15:00	Parallel Session C: Fan Politics, Engagement and Social Movements (15 mins per paper + 5 mins Q&A) Room: TS515 Chair: David Webber The Future of Fan Engagement (Kevin Rye - UCFB/Think Fan Engagement) In-person The Possibilities and Pitfalls to Web 3.0 and the Metaverse: The future of fan engagement in football (Mohammed Seedat and David Weale - UCFB) In-person More agentic or more communal? Women and their engagement in football fandom (Radosław Kossakowski and Tomasz Besta - University of Gdansk) Online The Moral Economy of the English (Football) Crowd in the 21st Century (Danny Fitzpatrick and Paddy Hoey - Aston University; Liverpool John Moores University) Online Parallel Session D: Football Education and Development (15 mins per paper + 5 mins Q&A) Room: TS501 Chair: Colm Hickey Case study of a grassroots football league: An analysis of stakeholders' perceptions use of public funding to sustain physical activity delivery in the community (Anees Ikramullah - University of Westminster) Online Exploring the role of football-based intervention programs to reduce reoffending: the Twinning Project (Linus Peitz - University of Kent) In-person Why do clubs invest in youth academies? (Thijs Velema - National Taipei University in Taiwan) Online

	A Football Education: Informal Schooling through Immersion in Working-Class Football Culture (Gary Poynton - Birmingham City University) In-person
15:00-15:15	Break and refreshments
15:15-16:00	Joint Keynote 'Lessons from Paris 2022' (Champions League final): The future securitisation of major football events Online Presented by Dr Joel Rookwood (University College Dublin) and Dr Jan Ludvigsen (Liverpool John Moores University) followed by a roundtable discussion Q&A
1600	Conference close
16:30-	Post-conference drinks Belgium & Blues Southampton, Guildhall Square, SO14 7DW