Selection Criteria

Numerous factors will determine the level of support provided to an athlete. These include; national and international rankings, competition results and selection for national and international teams.

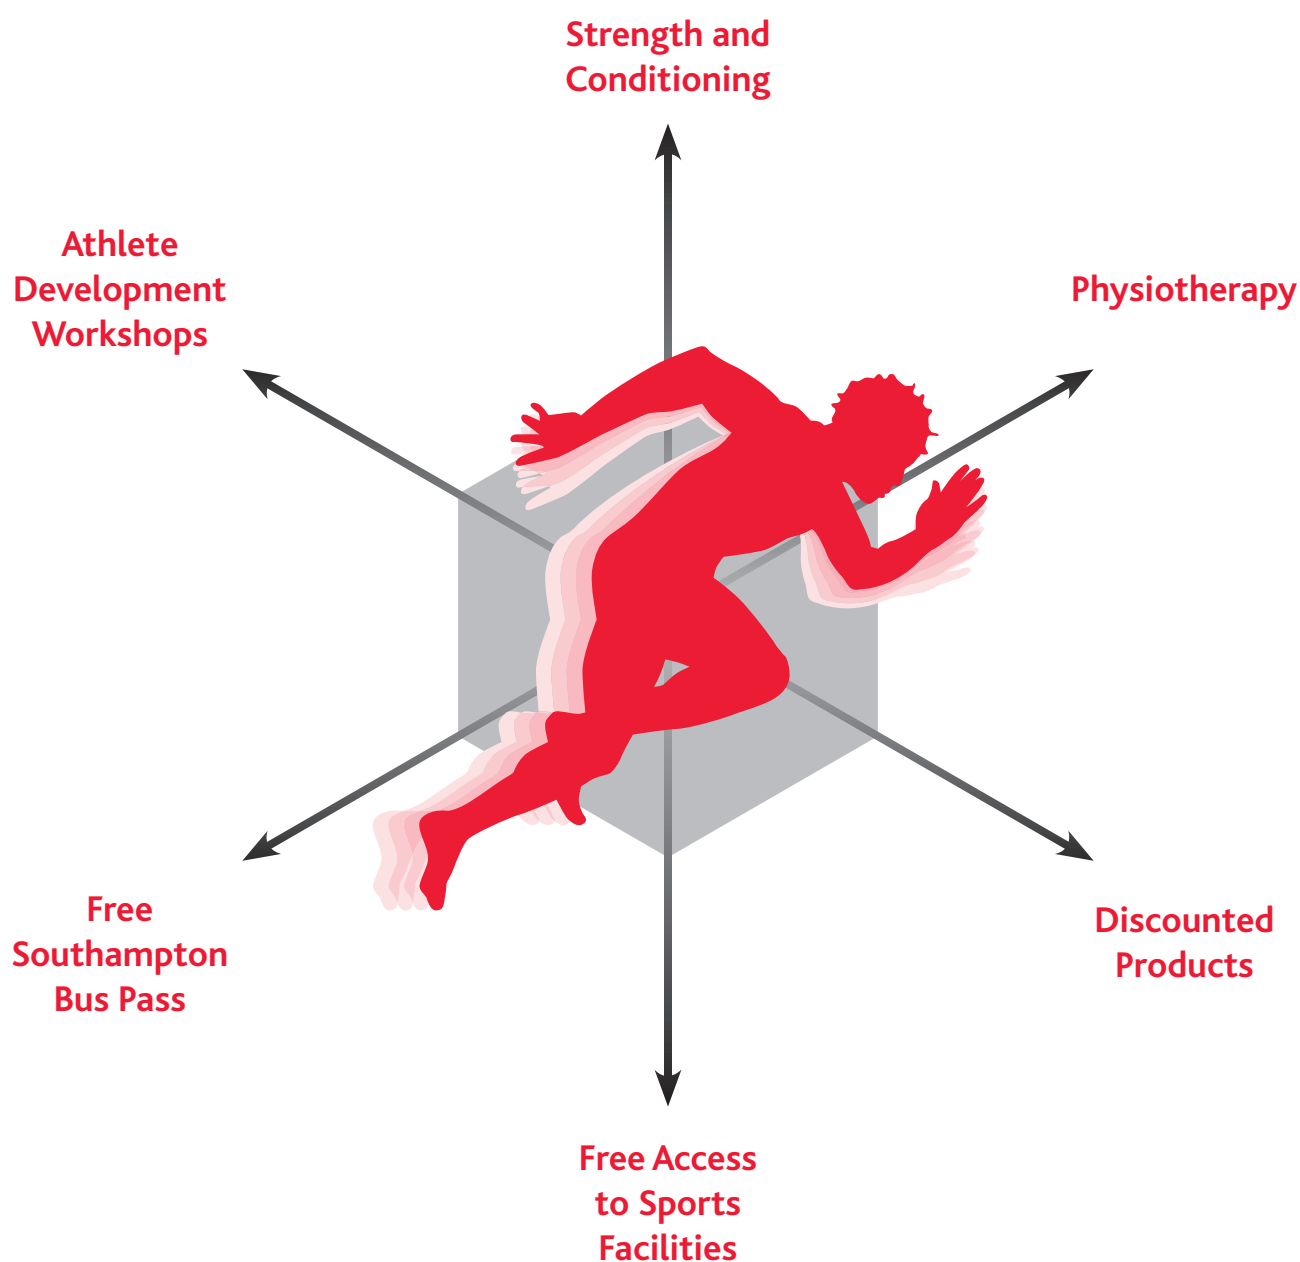

The selection panel will consider the athletes current position on the performance pathway towards senior world class competitions (Olympics, Paralympics and World Championships).

Athletes who are competing or are near to these competitions will be provided more support.

Sports which are not UK Sport and Sport England recognised will not be eligible.

Services Provided

Support services begin from a county level and continue through to internationally competing athletes. Due to the variety of National Governing Bodies (NGB's) pathways the athletes, your NGB may be consulted to insure appropriate support is provided at the correct level.
